

Privacy Policy

Newcourt Farm Campsite understands the importance of safeguarding your data and appreciates that your information must be handled respectfully. This privacy policy explains how we use any personal information we collect about you.

Collecting information

We only collect personal data from you by specifically asking for it when you contact us via the website, email or telephone.

The information we collect

- Your name, and contact details, including telephone number, email and postal address.
- Vehicle registration number.
- Children's ages
- Records of any correspondence.

We want to make sure that your personal information is accurate and up to date. You may ask us to correct or remove information you think is inaccurate.

How we use the information about you

We collect the information to enable identification, to respond to any enquiries and notifications.

Who will we share with

We do not sell or distribute your personal details unless legally required to do so or, to protect our rights, property and safety of our staff.

Cookies

We do not use cookies on our website.

Data security and retention

We are committed to protecting your privacy. The information we collect from you will be stored securely and for no longer than is necessary. It will then be safely destroyed.

Other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites. This privacy policy only applies to the Newcourt Farm Campsite so when you link to other websites you should read their own privacy policies.

Changes to our privacy policy

We keep our privacy policy under regular review and we will place any updates on this web page. This privacy policy was last updated on 18th February 2022.

How to contact us

Please contact us if you have any questions about our privacy policy or information we hold about you: info@newcourt-campsite.co.uk

Revised 18th February 2022